

AUTHORS' FORM

I confirm that this manuscript and its contents, including data, text, tables and figures, has not been published previously, is not under simultaneous consideration by another journal, is not in press at another journal, and if accepted or published, will not be submitted elsewhere. If any possibility of duplicate or redundant publication exists, an explanation is given in the manuscript.

I state that I have participated in the production of the manuscript to take responsibility for the content. I qualify as an Author based on one or more of the contributions and agree that my name will appear as the author of the text.

During the course of the study, I or any of my close family members received no financial or material research support or compensation. Only support relevant to the topic of the study needs to be disclosed.

I give final approval of the version to be published:
